DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 22, "at least one magnetizable element" should be changed to --said first magnetizable element—for proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 6, 7, 20, and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pawlak, et al..

Pawlak in Fig. 2 discloses first magnetizable element (51,57), first contact zone 75, second movable part 63 with permanent magnetization part 66 and second contact zone 73 and electromagnetic coil 68. Pawlak discloses a first 75 (on left) and a second 75 (on right) electrical contact inputs and control inputs 52.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pawlak, et al., cited above.

Pawlak discloses using a high strength permanent magnet (col. 4, lines 15-17) but did not specify it possess a magnetic induction greater than 1 tesla. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ a permanent magnet having a magnetic induction greater than 1 tesla, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 22 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. Claims 2-5, 9-19, 21, 22, 24-35 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Pawlak, the closest prior art of record, failed to teach or disclose a second electromagnetic coil.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments filed 3/3/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant contends Pawlak did not disclose "the first magnetic element (66)... located in proximity to a contact zone (75)". However, the examiner argues that the distinction of whether Pawlak's first magnetic element (66) is close or not close to a contact zone (75) is one of degree and therefore not sufficiently unequivocal to define over Pawlak. Furthermore, it is noted that element 33 intervenes between applicant's own magnetic element (34) and contact zone (35).

Conclusion

11. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
